The New Haven Register contains the following account of the enter-tainment recently given by the College Minstrels in New Haven:

The Norwich minstrels, composed of university, gave an entertainment Friday evening. The hall was filled and a most enjoyable entertainment was given, and the whole programme was full of life and action from the beginning to the end. sotion from the beginning to the end. All of the members of the company were in fine form, and it would be imwere in fine form, and it would be impossible to select any one for especial praise, the programme whether in the combinations or as individual parts being rendered in a manner such as we have learned to expect when it depends on any effort made by Yale talent. All of the numbers were excellent. The one act drama by Henry W. Wright, 1912, was full of action and color; one was in suspense as to which w. Wright, 1912, was fall of action and color; one was in suspense as to which to credit the greatest excellence, whether the unwavering affection of the graceful Inez, whose beauty and modesty won all hearts, Don Caramba, father of Inez; Don Miguel, the villain, or the graceful Don Juan. The entertainment was a great success, in spite of the storm, and the lodge room was crowded, many standing in the ante room, unable to get into the main

"The Hobe's Redemption," Thrilling and Dramatic Story of Life in a Coal Mine.

Falling from a rapidly moving coal car, Tim McCornack, a hobo, receives injuries which would have been serious, had not Mr. Young, one of the mine owners, come along. He places the hobe in the hands of a physician until he is finally recovered. When Tim recovers, Mr. Young, through the importunities of his daughter, procures employment for him in one of the mines. Tim is an intelligent felthe mines. Tim is an intelligent fellow, despite his former social position in the world, and withal attractive so it doesn't take him long to prove his worth, and soon he is made assistant manager, under Jim Donovan. This cleases Jessie, the daughter, and there is much rivalry between the manager and the assistant manager for the hand of the giri.

Shortly after this, Donovan, while inspecting a mine, is caught in a cavein, while these who accompanied nim are brought to the surface in the emergency lift. They are so terror-stricken that they have not missed Donovan, and upon the discovery of this Tim rushes back and discovers the missing man and successed. this Tim rushes back and discovers the missing man, and succeeds in bringing him to the top of the shaft in safety. This piece of hero'sm completely wins Jessle, and she showers her gratitu! upon the hobo who has snown it possible to rise above one's self and occupy the position of honor made possible by the hand of fate.

made pessible by the hand of late. Jim sees the way things are drifting, and realizing that "two's company," takes a sudden leave, and the happy fair are united. The programme is rich today in strong dramatic films, and the comedy is of the rollicking sort, peculiar to the Breed.

Mr. Matt Bennett sings Annie Laurie, by request, making a decided hit with it, and later singing the filmstrated song success, Take a Little Tip from Father.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Another new feature has been added to the weekly vaudeville and motion picture bill at this progressive little house, which is always on the lookout for something new. This feature, namely, "The Animated Weekly," is a one reel picture which will be shown one reel picture which will be shown one reel picture which will be shown and realizing of PROBATE HELD. for something new. This feature, namely, "The Animated Weekly," is a one reel picture which will be shown on Wednesday and Thursday of every week, starting today, until further notice, and will depict several different topical subjects, both foreign and American, and you will be able to see actual pictures of the happenings which you have been reading about in which you have been reading about in big headlines in the daily papers dur-ing the last week or two. The subjects will all be interesting and, what is more, they will be pictures of happen-Ings of late date.

The Bison two reel subjects, which are shown on every Monday and Tues-day, are to be omitted for the next two weeks, that is, Monday, April 8th, and Monday, April 15th, as the company is working on some extra large features and will be unable to get them out un-til the week of Monday, April 22d, but they promise to give them to us every week after that date.

The management has booked for Friday and Saturday of this week Shamus O'Brien, an Irish two reel feature, and for next Monday Midred Holland, the famous actress, will appear in a beautiful photoplay.

DYNAMITE IN FARMING.

Demonstrations to Be Given at Three Places in Eastern Connecticut,

The use of dynamite in farming while something new, has been experimented with enough to prove that in the future it will be a potent factor in successful agriculture. Pass gently, Lafe!

As one that takes farewell of a dear friend;
For neer till now were thou and I at strife.
Nor shall the sequel lend
The rich succession of thy smile and fear.
The conquering pride of love that framples fear and vaints itself a rapture without end!
But mine is weariness thou can'st not mend.

foces,
Panting to set their heel upon my head,
Or when alone from many wounds I bled

bled Unfligching beneath Fortune's random blows;
Not when my shuddering hands were doomed to close The unshrinking eyelids of the stony dead—
Not then I missed my God, not then—but said:
"Let me not burden God with all man's woes!"

Eut when resurgent from the womb of night
Spring's criffamme of flowers waves from the sed;
When feak on flashing Alpine peak is tred
By simbeams on their missionary flight;
When heaven-klased Earth laughs, garmented in light—
That is the hour in which I miss my God.
